

Growing Up Knowing Contract Facilitator Position

Job Description:

Growing Up Knowing promotes healthy life decisions through family education and community partnerships. We are seeking energetic and capable facilitators to contract with us to implement the following programs: My Body, My Boundaries Early Childhood Program*, My Body, My Boundaries Elementary Program in English and/or Spanish, and The 'Tween Talk: Comprehensive Sex Education for Middle School Families. For information about each program, please visit www.growingupknowing.org. Facilitators are responsible for successfully implementing Growing Up Knowing's curricula with groups of youth and their parents/caregivers. Facilitators will receive professional training for the program(s) they choose to facilitate and will be required to participate in continued professional development sessions. Compensation begins at $50 per session for My Body, My Boundaries programs and $75 per session for The 'Tween Talk.

Requirements:

- High school graduate, college preferred
- Demonstrated interest in Growing Up Knowing's work and mission
- Strong interpersonal and presentation skills
- Enthusiastic and eager to learn
- Able to work flexible hours (evenings, weekends)
- Completed application including two references
- Background check completed within the past five years
- *Applicants interested in facilitating the My Body, My Boundaries Early Childhood Program must have a minimum of an associate degree (college degree preferred) in early childhood education, family and/or child education, social work, or a related field and two or more years of experience working with early childhood learners.
